Opening Drive and production notes

OPENING DRIVE - FIRST DRAFT

From the north side of Nashville, inside the home of one of Tennessee's defining Class 4A programs, the Greenbrier Bobcats return to region play against the Pearl-Cohn Firebirds. Pearl-Cohn arrives at 4-3, riding three straight wins and a 119-28 scoring run. Greenbrier comes in 1-5, looking for its first win in this series since 2008 and its first victory on this field since the seven-point shutout of 2005.

NUMBERS TO WORK INTO THE OPEN

- Pearl-Cohn beat Springfield 24-21 in its region opener, then beat Bartlett 39-7 on the road.
- The Firebirds have won three straight after a one-point loss to Oakland.
- MaxPreps snapshot dated Oct. 1: Pearl-Cohn No. 1 in Class 4A and No. 19 in Tennessee.
- Submitted Pearl-Cohn leaders: QB Josef Funk 624 passing yards and seven TD passes; Lance Donaldson 41.0 rushing yards per game; Stephen Saulter three receiving TDs; Mikhail Moshay two interceptions.
- Those MaxPreps player figures are team-submitted and may not cover every game.
- Greenbrier is 1-5 overall and 0-2 in Region 6-4A. Whites Creek remains postponed and excluded from the record.
